Knowledge,

Pronunciation:
Silent final consonant:
 When a French word ends with a consonant, it is almost always silent, e.g. the 's' in Paris.
The phoneme [y] or /u/:
 The phoneme [y] does not exist in standard English. It is the sound made by the alphabet letter 'u', and can be heard in the question Comment tu t'appelles ?
The phoneme [ε] as in un:ε
 The phoneme [ε] is a nasal vowel. The letters 'un' here form a digraph, so the 'n' should not be sounded out.
Grammar:
Nouns:
 Nouns are types of words that can name people, places or things. Paris and la France are names of places. The noun Nounours is the name of a teddy bear.
Capital Letters:
 Paris and la France are spelt with capital letters. Place names are given a capital letter. Nounours is spelt with a capital letter. Personal names have a capital letter.
